2. In our conversation, [REDACTED] indicated that his clearances were revoked by the Agency in November 1980 because of several complaints lodged against him. [REDACTED] volunteered that during the time he was associated with the Agency, he was the Vice President of [REDACTED] which attempted to [REDACTED] Part of the complaint against him was that he spent more time on [REDACTED] activities than he did on his job. [REDACTED] acknowledged that this very well may have been the case, but he offered that he has now completely terminated his association with [REDACTED] activities. He also noted that he has been promoted [REDACTED] since leaving the Agency in 1980, thus giving evidence that his job performance with GSA has been quite satisfactory.
